[12th August 1960

THE HON. SRI V. RAMAIAH : What I desire is not only Members of the former Joint Select Committee but every Member of both the Houses who desire to move a good amendment to the amendments which I have already given, may meet me and give their amendments to me. I am prepared to consider all such points which are advanced by every Member of both the Houses. I am prepared to meet all Members on Sunday, 14th August 1960, at the Committee Room.

SRI K. VINAYAKAM : Are we to believe that amendments to the Bill could be given notice of by hon. Members till Sunday?

MR. SPEAKER : It is not as if hon. Members have the right to give notice of fresh amendments every time. I presume that after the meeting with the Minister, agreed amendments would be moved, after reaching unanimitty. The privilege of moving amendments at any time is that of the Hon. Minister.
